WELCOME: To all regulars, visitors, newcomers, explorers and pilgrims.

LET US PRAY: for peace in Ukraine; for those who are sick or in any kind of need, and for the faithful departed.

THIS WEEK | No Mass etc Monday-Friday this week. If anyone is interested in opening up church (either at Holy Rood or Our Lady's) on a regular basis, please let us know.

PARISH PICNIC | Sunday 14 August. Join us in the gardens of Grandpont House, Abingdon Road, for a summer picnic to celebrate the Assumption. We'll make our way over after Mass, from about 12.30pm, and all are welcome: parking for cars and bikes is available. Please bring something to eat and something to sit on, and if anyone has ideas about contributions they might make, do let us know. We will conclude the afternoon with Vespers in church.

AUGUST: MONTH OF THE ASSUMPTION | 26. Often there are theologians and preachers who, following in the footsteps of the holy Fathers, have been rather free in their use of events and expressions taken from Sacred Scripture to explain their belief in the Assumption. Thus, to mention only a few of the texts rather frequently cited in this fashion, some have employed the words of the psalmist: "Arise, O Lord, into your resting place: you and the ark, which you have sanctified"; and have looked upon the Ark of the Covenant, built of incorruptible wood and placed in the Lord's temple, as a type of the most pure body of the Virgin Mary, preserved and exempt from all the corruption of the tomb and raised up to such glory in heaven. Treating of this subject, they also describe her as the Queen entering triumphantly into the royal halls of heaven and sitting at the right hand of the divine Redeemer. Likewise they mention the Spouse of the Canticles "that goes up by the desert, as a pillar of smoke of aromatical spices, of myrrh and frankincense" to be crowned. These are proposed as depicting that heavenly Queen and heavenly Spouse who has been lifted up to the courts of heaven with the divine Bridegroom. 27. Moreover, the scholastic Doctors have recognized the Assumption of the Virgin Mother of God as something signified, not only in various figures of the Old Testament, but also in that woman clothed with the sun whom John the Apostle contemplated on the Island of Patmos. Similarly they have given special attention to these words of the New Testament: "Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with you, blessed are you among women," since they saw, in the mystery of the Assumption, the fulfillment of that most perfect grace granted to the Blessed Virgin and the special blessing that countered the curse of Eve. 38. All these proofs and considerations of the holy Fathers and the theologians are based upon the Sacred Writings as their ultimate foundation. These set the loving Mother of God as it were before our very eyes as most intimately joined to her divine Son and as always sharing his lot. Consequently it seems impossible to think of her, the one who conceived Christ, brought him forth, nursed him with her milk, held him in her arms, and clasped him to her breast, as being apart from him in body, even though not in soul, after this earthly life. Since our Redeemer is the Son of Mary, he could not do otherwise, as the perfect observer of God's law, than to honour, not only his eternal Father, but also his most beloved Mother. And, since it was within his power to grant her this great honour, to preserve her from the corruption of the tomb, we must believe that he really acted in this way. —Pius XII, Munificentissimus Deus, 1 November 1950.

SACRAMENTS| NB All appointments for meetings about babies' baptisms, and weddings are to be made in person after Mass.

VOCATIONS | We offer Mass regularly for the intentions of Vocations: for men and women to hear God's call in their lives, and for their families to support them. Consider whether God might be calling you through the Church to the priesthood or diaconate, to the religious life, to consecrated virginity, to membership of a "third order"—a life in the world informed by the spirit of a given religious order. You can visit www.portsmouthvocations.org to find out more.
